

INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM

Social Cohesion and Urban Ethnicity

Jointly organised by:

Monash Migration and Inclusion Centre, Monash University, Melbourne

Rikkyo Institute for Global Urban Studies, Rikkyo University, Tokyo

and

Institute of Urban Sciences, The University of Seoul, Seoul

Venue: Menzies Building, Monash University, Clayton, Melbourne

On 25-26 January 2020

Seminar & Conference

■ January 25th (Saturday) : DAY 1 – Conference (Menzies building Monash University)

Opening Ceremony (12:40-12:50)

Welcoming Remarks

Dharma AUNACHALAM

Portfolio Leader, Monash Migration and Inclusion Centre, Monash University

Session I (12:50-15:00)

Chairperson, Dharma AUNACHALAM

Portfolio Leader, Monash Migration and Inclusion Centre, Monash University

1. “Urban Scenes as Empathetic Spaces: The Case of Seoul”

Wonho JANG

Department of Urban Sociology, University of Seoul

2. “The Growing Cultural and Economic Divide between Metropolitan and Regional Victoria - Warrnambool a Case Study”

Ernest HEALY

Research Affiliate, School of Social Sciences, Monash University

3. “New Residential Trends of Foreign Migrants in the Suburban Tokyo”

Yoshiaki Edwin NORO
College of Sociology, Rikkyo University

4. “The Generation of Bangladesh Communities in Japan”

Tetsuo MIZUKAMI
College of Sociology, Rikkyo University

Tea Break (15: 00-15: 20)

Session II (15:20–16: 30)

Chairperson, Tetsuo MIZUKAMI
Director, Center for Statistics and Information, Rikkyo University

Open Discussion on Prospective Research Collaborative Research

All the participants

Closing Address (16: 30-16: 35)

Wonho JANG
Director, Center for Glocal Culture and Social Empathy, University of Seoul

Farewell Dinner (18:00): Lygon Street

■ January 26th (Sunday): DAY 2 –Excursion

Start Southern Cross Station (12: 00)
Melbourne Inner-City Diversity and Ethnic Communities:
Excursion to the Sites for Development.